Data Controller

The Data Protection Act 2018 requires every organisation that processes personal information to register as a Data Controller with the Information Commissioners Office (ICO) unless they are exempt.

No. 5 Dental Care is registered with the ICO as a data controller under registration no. Z2667558.

Why we collect information about you

We aim to provide you with the highest quality of dental care. To do this we must keep records about you, your health and the care we have provided or plan to provide you.

These records may include:

- basic details about you, such as address, date of birth, next of kin, GP details
- contact we have had with you such as appointments
- notes and reports about your health
- details and records about your treatment and care
- results of investigations such as x-rays

How your records are used

We use your records to:

- provide a good basis for any treatment or advice we provide to you
- make sure your treatment is safe and effective and the advice we provide is appropriate and relevant to you
- work effectively with others providing you with treatment or advice
- properly investigate your concerns if you raise a complaint

When we might share information about you

We have a duty to:

- maintain full and accurate records of the care we provide to you
- keep records about you confidential, secure and accurate
- provide information in a format that is accessible to you

Members of the clinical teams looking after you may share your personal information.

All staff are bound by law and a strict code of confidentiality. In accordance with NHS guidance we have appointed a Caldicott Guardian; a senior member of staff responsible for protecting the confidentiality of patient information and enabling appropriate information sharing.
